Risk and reward profile

- This indicator shows how much a fund has risen and fallen in the past, and therefore how much a fund's returns have varied. It is a measure of a fund's volatility. As the fund has less than 5 years price history, this calculation incorporates the volatility of an appropriate benchmark index. The higher a fund's past volatility the higher the number on the scale and the greater the risk that investors in that fund may have made losses as well as gains.
- The fund has been classed as 5 because its volatility has been measured as above average.
- This indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of this fund.
- The risk and reward profile shown is not guaranteed to remain the same and may shift over time. The lowest number on the scale does not mean that a fund is risk free.

- Counterparty risk: As the fund may enter into derivative agreements there is a risk that other parties may fail to meet their obligations. This may lead to delays in receiving amounts due to the fund, receiving less than is due or receiving nothing.
- Emerging Market Risk: Emerging markets tend to be more susceptible to large short term swings than more established markets. There is also a greater risk of being unable to buy or sell securities or that other parties may default and not meet their obligations, causing loss to the fund.
- Currency Risk: As the fund can be exposed to different currencies, changes in exchange rates may decrease the value of your investment.
- Concentration Risk: the fund may hold a small number of investments and may therefore be subject to larger than normal swings in its value.
- The value of investments, and the income from them, will fluctuate. This will cause the fund price to fall as well as rise and you may not get back what you originally invested.
